
Hold Harmless Agreement

Unless the client has obtained the prior written consent of _____ (the Company) then the client agrees not to ask or allow an employee of the company to perform any of the following job related activities; drive an automobile or other motor vehicle, operate machinery other than office equipment or handle cash, securities and other valuables. If this prior written consent is not obtained the client agrees to waive all rights to make a claim against the company and will relieve the company from all liability and responsibility for any damage, loss or expense which the client incurs as a result of the company employee engaging in such activities. The client further agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the company from and against all claims, damages, bodily injuries, losses and expenses which might be caused as a result for the company employee engaging in any of these activities.

The client also agrees not to expose any of the company's employees to unnecessary hazard, extra hazard and not to violate any OSHA or safety law, rule or regulations whether federal, state or local.

The client understands that they may be held liable by breaching this agreement.
